Financial/Estate Planning And Strategies For Your Child's Future:

How can you help insure that your child with special needs has the financial foundation for a secure, comfortable, and meaningful life-long after you are no longer alive?

Special Needs Trusts. ABLE Accounts. Power Of Attorney vs Guardianship. And then, HOW to fund all of this?? Join us on Tuesday April 2nd to learn how, from two of the best in the field.

Bruce H. Sham, CLF, Senior Vice President, Special Care Planner, MassMutual Greater Philadelphia, (www.specialcareplanning.net) has dedicated his financial services practice of 40 years to working with families with children with special needs. His mission is to help families navigate through the difficult process of accessing resources and valuable government benefits for their children. Bruce is also well known in our community for his many commitments and contributions to various organizations and boards devoted to those with special needs.

Liz Hyams is the owner of the Law Office of Elizabeth Hyams, LLC in Wayne, Pennsylvania, specializing in estate planning, special needs and guardianship matters. She is committed to providing clients with high quality and reasonably priced estate planning services. Liz received her B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania, and her law degree from Georgetown University. She has over twenty years of legal experience. Prior to establishing her own firm in 2015, she worked as an attorney at McAndrews Law Offices, Montgomery McCracken Walker & Rhodes, Morgan Lewis & Bockius, and PECO Energy.
