

THE PA INCLUSION COLLECTIVE: A FOUR PART SERIES

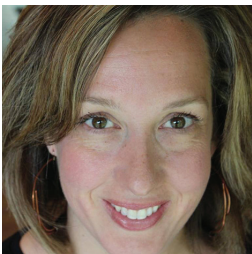

Join us for 4 innovative and joyful sessions aimed to enhance the region's growth toward more inclusive educational opportunities for educators and families. The goal is to align the heartset, mindset, and skillset of teachers, administrators, families and related service providers to educate the diverse range of learners effectively in inclusive settings.

A zoom experience like no other. Feel free to bring your dinner, kick-up your feet and relax as you learn. Brought to you by: Radnor Education Foundation • Radnor Committee for Special Education • Lower Merion School District Committee for Special Education • Build T/E • The Methacton Special Education Alliance

- 1. FEB. 3
INCLUSIVE EDUCATION -
WHAT, HOW, AND WHY?
- 2. FEB. 10
INNOVATIVE INCLUSIVE
VIRTUAL INSTRUCTION
- 3. FEB. 17
DIFFERENTIATION AND PARAPROFESSIONAL SUPPORTS
- 4. FEB. 24
SUPPORTING STUDENTS WITH
BEHAVIORS THAT CHALLENGE US

FEBRUARY 3RD, 10TH, 17TH & 24TH • 6:00-7:30 PM ET • This event is FREE and ALL are welcome to attend
REGISTER AT INCLUSIVESCHOOLING.COM/PA-ZOOM

4 Sessions focused on everything educators and families need to make Inclusive Education a Reality • 90 Minutes each
TAUGHT BY THE FOREMOST EXPERTS ON INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

DR. JULIE CAUSTON

An inspiring author, speaker, and inclusion advocate, Dr. Julie Causton spent 14 years in Higher Education at Syracuse University before leaving to become the CEO of Inclusive Schooling. She has spent the past 20 years studying best practices for inclusive education. Her dynamic presentations focus on engaging ways to educate learners, regardless of age, ability, and/or location.

DR. KRISTIE
PRETTI-FRONTCAK

An accomplished author, sought-after speaker, and educator's educator, Dr. Kristie Pretti-Frontczak spent 16 years as a tenured professor in Higher Education at Kent State University before leaving to lead a {r}evolution in early childhood education. She has spent over 50,000 hours teaching adults best practices in early childhood care and education in locations from Cincinnati to Singapore. She's also been teaching adult learners on-line since 1997.

DR. JENNA RUFO

Jenna Mancini Rufo is a consultant for Inclusive Schooling with a wealth of special education and leadership experience from K-12 public education. Currently an Assistant Superintendent, Jenna has also served as a Director of Special Education and Student Services, an inclusion facilitator, a special education teacher, and a policy specialist for the Massachusetts Department of Education.