

SPRING INTO ACTION!

VALUING OUR DIFFERENCES TO BUILD A STRONGER COMMUNITY

Please join the Lower Merion School District's InterSchool Council for our Spring Speaker & Workshop Event

Wednesday, April 24th
7-8:30 pm, Lower Merion High School

Equity: A Community Call To Action

An interactive evening that will allow participants to take a reflective look at equity (racial, gender, ability level, sexual preferences) from a community-building perspective and identify ways to ensure that Lower Merion provides a culture of inclusion for all students and families.

Facilitated by Dr. Tara Doaty, author, national speaker and trainer, adjunct professor, and Founder & CEO of Sage Wellness Group, a consultant company committed to using a trauma-informed lens to explore issues related to equity and achievement.

Other upcoming events related to equity and community building hosted by the ISC and other LMSD groups include:

March:

Tuesday, 3/12 (9:30-11 am)
Academy Building
(adjacent to Bala Cynwyd Middle School)

ISC HOT TOPIC!

Let's Learn Together LMSD's Efforts To Support & Affirm Sexual & Gender Minority Students:

Action Steps, Updates, Resources, and Q&A.

Presented by Dr. Jeanne Stanley, Executive Director of Watershed Consulting, a national trainer, and consultant for LMSD for nine years.

Tuesday, 3/19 (6-7:30pm)

District Administration Building (Board Room)

All-LMSD Book Discussion: All American Boys by Jason Reynolds & Brendan Kiely. Open to all parents, high school students, and LMSD staff.

The book is about two teenage classmates, one black, one white, who work to make sense of a violent act that leaves their school, their community, and, ultimately, the country bitterly divided by racial tension. Facilitated by Leslie Pratt, LMSD Supervisor of Secondary Literacy, Social Studies & Librarians.

March:

Wednesday, 3/27 (4-6 pm)
Lower Merion High School, Library

Committee to Address Race in Education (CARE)

Join the conversation – LMSD administrators, teachers, students, parents/guardians all welcome. Facilitated by Dr. Tara Doaty and Mr. Victorious Hall
